

AT FAIR GROUNDS

SAILOR'S DELIGHT BEST AT UNION

With Light Weight, Filly Looks Like She Should Win the O'Fallon Handicap—Steeplechase a Feature.

Seven races are scheduled at Union Park this afternoon, and the indications are the track will be fast.

The O'Fallon Handicap is the feature, and it promises to be an interesting one. The field is well met, and there will not likely be much scratches.

In weight only 89 pounds, Sailor's Delight should win the event. She has shown on several occasions that she is a pretty smart animal at anything between a mile and a mile and an eighth.

Lily Hartman will be the contender and there seems to be no way of keeping him out of the money. On his race Thursday, he appears to be in form, and with only 160 pounds, has a chance to win.

Kenova should be third, but hardly higher.

The track slow would deplete her chances greatly. Fairbury looks to be outside the money, and it is believed that he was capable of doing Harry.

W. B. Gates and Queen, coupled as an entry, will carry the Rice colors. They have a good chance to win, but the track slow would deplete their chances.

The second race is also a handicap at one-and-a-half furlongs for two-year-olds.

San Primus is as good as any of them.

Kenova is the best, and will win. Sailor's Delight has won several races by coming from behind and was going away at the end. He is worth a good bet to be second.

Kenova, in light, is the best.

Bear Hunter is in light, but this colt appears to have been overworked and not fit.

Tressilian is the class of the first race and has the edge over the others.

Reprise should be second and Hesiman third.

The third race is also a handicap at three-quarters of a mile, and it is made up of speed merchants.

Bomberack is capable of carrying 115 pounds and winning from this company.

Away and Flyer are the best.

Hesiman should win.

Kenova, in light, is the third.

There is every reason to believe that Dodee S. will be the winner of the fifth race.

She is certainly the class and likes a distance.

Kenova, in light, should put her.

Chicago Girl looks good to run second and Landolin third.

The latter is a rater and should finish in the money.

The sixth race looks like Symphony, although Sheer will be a dangerous contender, and there will be little difference in the odds.

A Convict will likely break into the money.

The card will be concluded by a steeplechase over the short course, which looks like the best.

Varner is the best, and will be the best jumper at the track can come a long route, and is in at an advantage in the matter of weight.

R. W. Rice has a strong chance.

Hesiman, in light, is the best.

Reprise again picked three winners, selecting Charley Thompson, Commodore and Wissendine.

Four Hundreds vs. Grand Rapids.

The Four Hundreds will play the Grand Rapids, Mich., team, the first of the season at Wardian Park this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The line-up of the teams will be as follows: The Four Hundreds—Jones, 2 b.; T. C. Crow, 3 b.; W. B. Gates, 1 b.; W. E. Fisher, captain; Window, s.; Gatewood, c.; Hardin, Cunningham, p.; King, utility; Leavenworth, p.; Schreiner, c.; Schreiner, r.; Schreiner, l.; Rademaker, 2 b.; Fox, 3 b.; Adams, 1 b.; Papke, 1 b.; Dickerson, c.; Helm, Heimann, r. t.

FAVORITES AGAIN WIN HALF THE CARD

First Choices in Betting Capture Three Races at Fair Grounds

—Commodore Gets the Feature.

Charley Thompson, Wissendine and Commodore were the winning favorites at the Fair Grounds yesterday, first choices again taking the half races.

Though but three started in the fourth race, the track slow afforded a pretty content and a good medium for speculation. Held at even money, Commodore was always favorite, while Forehand and Just So fluctuated around the neighborhood of 2 to 1 in the betting, each being well backed.

While Commodore led from the start to the finish, it was by no means a run-away race. Right behind him, always within striking distance, Just So and Forehand whizzed about, each gaining on the leader and seeming to have him caught at one stage or another of the race.

On the backstretch, it was Just So who shot suddenly forward, passed Forehand and seemed to have his field beaten. Then came the turn, and the two leaders were neck and neck, with the track slow again.

On the backstretch, it was Just So who shot suddenly forward, passed Forehand and seemed to have his field beaten. Then came the turn, and the two leaders were neck and neck, with the track slow again.

Just So, however, was set down, however, he drew away little by little, and he passed the stand an easy victor over Forehand, who got the place easily enough from the start.

The last race on the card always seems to be the lucky event for Peter Nolan. Last year he was in the closing race, but this year he was not, and he was through in most impressive style. Thursday was the last race that Orpheum won. And yesterday, after Regal D. had won, he was the lucky one.

He was the only one to make a fast start.

Orpheum, in light, was set down, however, he drew away little by little, and he passed the stand an easy victor over Forehand, who got the place easily enough from the start.
